

UNDERGRADUATE MINOR IN ACCOUNTING

Accounting: The Language of Business

In the minor in accounting program, courses are designed to expose students to a wide range of issues related to analyzing, interpreting, and communicating financial information to internal and external stakeholders. Open to Business and non-Business students.

Highlights of the minor in accounting include:

- Add to your financial skill set and open new career opportunities.
- Explore internship opportunities with international, national, and regional accounting firms and industry.
- Complete the accounting courses necessary to apply to UConn’s Master of Science in Accounting (MSA) program
- Discover the benefits of becoming a certified public accountant (CPA).

POLICIES

- Six 3-credit 2000-4000 level ACCT (or BADM) courses are required.
- <sup>R</sup> Residence Requirement: ACCT 3201 (or BADM 3201); ACCT 3202 (or BADM 3202); ACCT 3260 (or BADM 3260); and ACCT 4243 (or BADM 4243) must be taken in residence at the University of Connecticut. Education Abroad courses may not be used to meet this residency requirement.
- Business students should register for the ACCT sections; non-business students should register for the BADM sections (with the exception of ACCT 2001, in which any student may enroll).
- Students may earn only one minor in business disciplines. A student may earn a second minor if it is offered jointly by the School of Business and another School or College, and all coursework used to satisfy that second minor is from non-Business coursework. View the University Catalog for additional details.
- Non-Business majors may attempt no more than 18 credits (approximately 6 courses) of 3000/4000-level coursework offered by the School of Business, which includes work transferred in as equivalent to courses offered by the School of Business. View the University Catalog for additional details.
- Unless a higher standard is noted in the description of a specific minor program, completion of a minor requires that a student earn a “C” (2.0) grade or better in each of the required courses for that minor.
- ACCT 2001 and ACCT 2101/BADM 2101 (formerly BADM 2710) are required for the Accounting minor. It is highly recommended that students consult with their academic advisors on the appropriate terms in which to complete these two courses, which are pre-requisites for the additional minor courses below.
